Schedule D, Part III, Line 4 - The Association periodically receives or, in special cases, purchases historic artifacts such as carpentry tools and letters. These are safeguarded in a locked area and put on display, usually on a rotating basis. They are also available for research purposes. Items in the Association's collections include pioneer clothing, tools, furniture, photographs, store records, etc. that represent life in the Steilacoom area over the last 175 years. These items are either on display or kept in a locked climate-controlled area of the historic Orr Home. Many of the items not on permanent display may be placed on temporary exhibits in the Museum or one of the Association's three historic buildings. Many of the items were donated to the Association. Some of particular importance to the community are purchased when they are put up for sale. The end result is a vast and varying source of historic examples that are seen by visitors, especially school students, and made available to researchers, in accordance with the Association's mission.

Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 - The Association's quasi-endowment consists of gifts from donors and earnings from investments. The Board adopted policies in 2013, updated in 2018, for management and use of the funds. The objectives are to (1) raise at least $500,000 before withdrawing earnings to cover certain operating expenses and/or (2) be used in case of a financial emergency. In the latter case, it would take a vote by the Board of Trustees to withdraw from the endowment fund.
